"At the meeting of the board of trade, last evening, there was present Mr. J. G. Valled into, of Sedgwick county, Kansas, authorized by the governer of Kansas as agent to gather articles for the relief of the people of his section who are suffering for, want of food and clothing because of the grasshopper devastation. And Mr. V. told his story. It was in possible he said, to picture the suffering he had witnessed in his portion of Kansas dirting the past three months. He had divided his own with sufferers about him, as had some of his neighbors who were a little better of than most of the sufferers. He mentioned assess in which whole families had almost uothing to ent for whole days—as a sample as woman, and daughter of twelve years, who walked four miles to see him, who had not eaten a mouthful of food in three days before, and all her five children had was the milk of one cow which was fast drying. The woman and largent had not raiment enough to properly clothe an infant six months of the suffering prisoners.
